

Seen

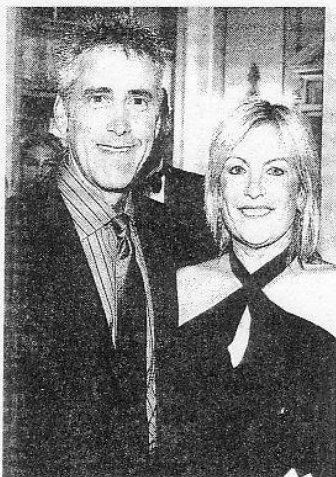

PHOTOGRAPHS BY BILL BRETT

Triangle marks 34th year

Triangle, Inc., an organization that helps those with disabilities lead more independent lives, celebrated its 34th anniversary at the Boston Park Plaza. The Malden-based group, founded in 1971, assists more than 800 people from Massachusetts communities each year. Triangle provides employment aid, training in connection with 30 Triangle-branded products, residential help, and more. More than 500 attended the Sunday event.

Lisa Barker and Robin Eveleth, both of Malden.

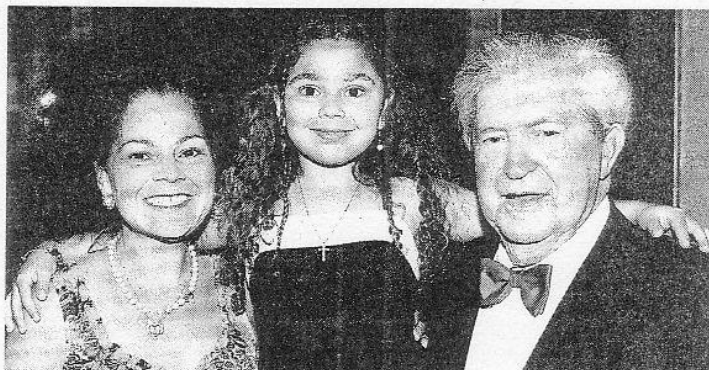

Billy and Lisa Costa of Lynnfield.

Stephanie Eaton and Kimberly Lapine, of Malden.

Gerard Torry, Sylvia Cooney, and Mike Charone, all of Danvers.

Peggy Donnelly, Hazel Rodrigues, 7, and John P. Donnelly, retired justice from Malden District Court, all of Malden.

Matthew Avery, Marie Puggi, and Bryan Priestley, all of Malden.

Lisa and Anthony Gattineri and their daughter, Lori, of Lynnfield.

Wanda Rivera of Malden and Noel Rivera of Somerville.