Triangle, Inc.

Today we take another step forward in realizing a new chapter for our employees at Triangle, Inc. as a newly unionized workforce. Regardless of union designation, we have always felt and will continue to operate as one team working toward a collective mission of providing the most comprehensive, forward thinking service for our participants.

We thank all of our employees and managers for their professionalism and respect for each other during this effort and look forward to surpassing our goals this year for each and every person of all abilities.
